The Davis County Symphony was formed October 2009 by Marie Crockett after she was approached by several community members expressing their desire for a community symphony. After the symphony was formed, they presented their first concert in March of 2010, which was a huge success! The symphony continues to perform several concerts a year including an annual Messiah Sing Along. They have also performed for legislative events, arts in the parks series, and many other events throughout Davis County.

The Davis County Symphony is a group for members 9th grade and older. We focus on music of all styles and levels to help each and every musician feel comfortable while improving their musical skills. We give composing, conducting, and solo opportunities which are all wonderful learning opportunities for everyone involved!

The Davis County Symphony is currently under the direction of Marie Crockett, Music Director and Conductor, and Jeremy Johnson, Assistant Music Director and Conductor.

Mission

The Davis County Symphony has been formed with a vision that those who join will feel the “Spirit of Community.” The symphony creates an environment for those who participate whereby they can strive to engage, serve, and inspire, as well as enhance their artistic lives and musical growth. It also provides a venue to share diverse talents and ideas and the opportunity to give back to the community through music and service as we create a feeling of family.

Marie Maxfield started music in seventh grade and continued music through high school participating in choir, orchestra, school and community musicals, and Granite Jr. and Sr. Youth Symphony. She has been a member of the American West Symphony, Lake Bonneville Community Symphony, New American Philharmonic, West Valley Symphony, and was a string specialist for both the Lincoln Youth Symphony and the Lincoln Youth Chamber orchestra. Marie has spent the last 20 years learning how to play almost every instrument involved in a symphony and substitutes with several local groups. Currently, Marie is a member of the Wasatch Symphony Orchestra and on the board as head of Public Relations, West Jordan Symphony as concertmaster and on the board as Head of Public Relations, Taylorsville Symphony, and a member of the West Valley Lions. Marie has four children and is married to her sweetheart, Evan.

Jeremy Johnson received his Bachelor of Music Education Degree from Brigham Young University-Idaho. During his time there he was offered many unique opportunities not typically offered to undergraduate students, including composing, conducting the University Band, and teaching music theory and ear training. As a performer, he was a member of a professional woodwind quintet in Idaho Falls and was often asked to play horn in the Idaho Falls Symphony Orchestra and Teton Chamber Orchestra. He has also performed on the horn with renowned artists such as Kurt Bestor and Collin Raye. He currently teaches band in the Granite School District and plays horn under conductor Ted Zalkind in the Wasatch Symphony. In addition to conducting, he enjoys composing for various instrumentations, performing on various instruments, writing songs for his wife and college sweetheart, Sashaa, and playing music for his three-year-old son and his other son on the way.
